U.S. AIR FORCE
AGGRESSORS

The official USAF Aggressor program was born in 1972 as a response to the poor aerial combat performance of U.S. Air Force aircrews in Vietnam.

Today, as part of the 57th Operations Group, the Aggressors integrate live-fly missions with air defense and cyber operations to improve combat performance through the most realistic training and education on relevant target sets.

Visit the link below for information on:

Aggressor Support Requests

Aggressor Threat Lecture Series

Mobile Training Teams

https://intelshare.intelink.gov/sites/57atss/